Jorgensen Schedules Saturday Listening Session In Milton As Budget Vote Nears

MADISON – State Representative Andy Jorgensen (D-Milton) today announced he will hold a listening session on Saturday, June 6th from 10:00-10:30 a.m. at the Milton Public Library, located at 430 E. High Street.

"When you work all week, I understand it can be hard to get to a listening session – or even find time to make a phone call or send an email," said Jorgensen. "But, everyone's voice is important and should be heard. That's why I try to offer a variety of in-district 'office hours' to accommodate all kinds of schedules."

While folks are welcome to bring Jorgensen whatever questions, ideas, and concerns may be on their mind, he is especially encouraging individuals to share their thoughts on the budget, which must be approved by the Legislature by the end of the month.

"Governor Walker's budget makes deep cuts to public education, our UW system, and to lifeline programs like SeniorCare," said Jorgensen. "If you want to see changes made, now is the time to let your legislators know it."

No appointment is needed to meet with Rep. Jorgensen during his in-district listening sessions. If you are unable to attend but wish to share your views, you can call Rep. Jorgensen toll-free at 888-534-0043 or email him at rep.jorgensen@legis.wi.gov.

Watch for announcements of upcoming listening sessions in your newspaper and on Jorgensen's legislative website, http://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/jorgensen.
